Here below are some features of the Acrylic Number Award:

Modern and Professional Design: The clear acrylic material and sleek design of this award trophy block give it a modern and professional look, making it an attractive and impressive way to recognize employees' contributions and achievements. The customizable number on the trophy can also be designed to match the company's branding and style.

Durable and Long-lasting: Unlike traditional glass or crystal awards, acrylic awards are more durable and less likely to break or chip. This means that the award will last for many years, serving as a lasting reminder of the employee's achievements and the company's appreciation.

Customizable and Personalized: The Custom Clear Acrylic Number Award Trophy Block can be customized and personalized to suit the company's specific needs and preferences. The company can choose the size, shape, and design of the award, as well as the wording and graphics engraved on the trophy. This allows the company to create a unique and meaningful award that reflects its values and culture.
